

Grand Opening & Canoe Rendezvous

September 8th, 2012

10:00 A.M - 5:00 P.M.

The Upper Chesapeake Wooden Boat Builders School, formerly located at the Havre de Grace Maritime Museum has relocated to the Upper Bay Museum in North East, Maryland.

The Fall Semester will begin on September 11, 2012 and is listed in the Harford Community College's Program and is also mentioned on the Cecil Community College's website.

Come see our 100 year old wooden and canvas canoes, recently completed boat school sailing dingy along with other boats and many other artifacts will be on display.

North East Community Park hosts the Boat School's new location with canoe ramp accessibility.

- Canoe enthusiasts mingle and launch their boats in the park.
- UBM hosts their historical hunting demonstrations including punt, bushwacking and sculling demos.
- Museum/Boat School Tours
- Explore Boat School's Courses
